Schedule B shows current notices outstanding, awaiting service, compliance, etc.

An appeal can be lodged, usually within 28 days of service, on a number of grounds, and are shown abbreviated in the schedule.

The grounds are:

- (a) That, in respect of any breach of planning control which may be constituted by the matters stated in the notice, planning permission ought to be granted or, as the case may be, the condition or limitation concerned ought to be discharged;
- (b) That those matters have not occurred (as a matter of fact);
- (c) That those matters (if they occurred) do not constitute a breach of planning control;
- (d) That, at the date when the notice was issued, no enforcement action could be taken in respect of any breach of planning control which may be constituted by those matters;
- (e) That copies of the enforcement notice were not served as required by Section 172;
- (f) That the steps required by the notice to be taken, or the activities required by the notice to cease, exceed what is necessary to remedy any breach of planning control which may be constituted by those matters or, as the case may be, to remedy any injury to amenity which has been caused by any such breach;
- (g) That any period specified in the notice in accordance with Section 173(9) falls short of what should reasonably be allowed.
