- Public safety
- The prevention of public nuisance
- The protection of children from harm

In making its decision, the Sub-Committee also had regard to the Guidance issued under Section 182 of the Licensing Act 2003 and Havering's Licensing Policy.

In addition the Sub Committee took account of its obligations under s17 of the Crime and Disorder Act 1998, and Articles 1 and 8 of the First Protocol of the Human Rights Act 1998.

Decision

Having considered the variations sought, the representations and having considered the oral and written submissions on behalf of the applicant, the Sub-Committee granted in part the application as follows:

1. Licensable Activities:

Having considered the variations sought, the representations and having considered the oral and written submissions on behalf of the applicant, the Sub-Committee granted the application as follows:

(a) Films:

Sunday to Thursday:	11:00 hours until 23:00 hours
Friday and Saturday:	11:00 hours until 00:00 hours

(b) Live Music:

Sunday to Thursday: 11:00 hours until 23:00 hours
Friday and Saturday: 11:00 hours until 00:00 hours

(c) Recorded Music:

Sunday to Thursday: 11:00 hours until 23:00 hours
Friday and Saturday: 11:00 hours until 00:00 hours

(d) Anything of a similar description to that falling within (e) (f) or (g) –
karaoke, DJ, Disco

Sunday to Thursday: 11:00 hours until 23:00 hours
Friday and Saturday: 11:00 hours until 00:00 hours

(e) Provision of facilities for dancing

(g) Supply of Alcohol

2. Non-standard timings

In addition to the use of Temporary Event Notices allowed under the Licensing Act 2003, the premises may open on 12 non-standard occasions, in line with the Association of Chief Police Officers guidelines; subject to a minimum of 10 working days' notice being given to the licensing authority and the Police for each occasion. The prior written consent of the Police shall be obtained and the police shall have absolute right to refuse any occasion. A register shall be kept at the premises in the manner required by the Police and the Licensing Authority and available for inspection by the police or an Authorised Officer of the Licensing Authority and details of each occasion shall be recorded in it including the written consent of the police.

3. Embedded Restrictions

The Sub-Committee refused a request to remove current restrictions under s.168 of the Licensing Act 1964. Thus the pub's policy on children in the premises is to remain unchanged.

In making its decisions the Sub-Committee took account of the licensing objectives and in particular the prevention of public nuisance which it must promote in carrying out its functions. The Sub-Committee was of the view that the application had been granted to the greatest extent possible whilst promoting the prevention of public nuisance and the licensing objectives generally. The limitation on the hours sought and the conditions imposed on the licence were the minimum intervention in the applicant's right to enjoy its property that the Sub-Committee could impose whilst carrying out its functions appropriately.
