By granting a premises licence to Vicky News there will be twice the opportunity for youths to obtain alcohol and cigarettes. Last week there was a gang of 15 youths hanging around the parade I just turned around and went back home rather than walk past them. I would consider granting the licence will cause more public nuisance,crime and disorder and public safety would be an issue.

The representation is therefore of Preventing crime and disorder, of public safety (ie the local children and residents ) Also the increased risk of children acquiring alcohol is a serious issue and therefore the

With Havering sixth form college being so near this is a temptation for youths to obtain Alcohol which can lead to public nuisance. Having a over 25 policy does not mean it will be enforced. I am also worried about crime and disorder as there is already youths hanging around the parade.
