

STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT

The Secretary of State is expected to issue a code as regards the conduct which is expected of qualifying employees of the authority under section 82 of the Local Government Act 2000. Once the code is made, it will be deemed to be incorporated in the terms of appointment or conditions of employment of every qualifying employee. The code will be set out in the constitution at such time as it is made by the Secretary of State.

For further information about the staff code of conduct, please contact the Director of Legal & Governance on extension 2442
