Part A – Report seeking decision

DETAIL OF THE DECISION REQUESTED AND RECOMMENDED ACTION

Background:

The property is a ground floor two bedroom flat which is located within a purpose built three storey block. The property is accessed via an internal communal hallway and staircase. We understand that the property also benefits from a small external store shed.

The property was originally sold under the Right to Buy on a long lease in June 1987. The lease was originally granted for 125 years but due to the number of sales which have taken place within the block there is currently 88 years remaining on the lease.

The right provided by the Leasehold Reform Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 (as amended) (hereinafter referred to as “1993 Act”) is for the grant of a new lease for a term of 90 years, plus the present unexpired term, all at a peppercorn rent (that is, rent free).

the legislative requirements for the terms on which the new lease is to be granted:

- To be at a peppercorn rent (i.e. no rent) for the whole of the term (the 90 years plus the present unexpired term);
- To be on the same terms as the existing lease, subject to minor modifications and certain statutory exclusions and additions:
- Modifications – to take account of any alterations to the flat, or the building, since the grant of the existing lease (e.g. reference to gas lighting or coal stores), or to remedy a defect in the lease.
- Exclusions – since the 1993 Act provides a right to perpetual renewal of the lease, any existing clauses relating to renewal pre-emptions or early termination are to be excluded.
- Additions – a requirement not to grant a sub-lease of sufficient length so as to confer on the sub-lessee a right to a new lease under the Act.
- The landlord’s redevelopment right – the new lease must also contain a clause giving the landlord the right to repossession of the flat for the purposes of redevelopment.

Valuation Commentary:

To obtain a valuation of the premium which is attainable following the Statutory route and is in accordance with Schedule 13 of the Leasehold Reform etc Act 1993.

The Landlord is entitled to compensation for the loss in the value of the present and reversionary interest, together with an equal share of any enhancement to the value of the flat upon extension of the lease, if appropriate (called marriage value). Marriage value is only attributable when leases have an unexpired term of less than 80 years and in this case therefore has not been applied as part of the valuation.

Non-key Executive Decision

- The Leaseholder has served a notice dated 11th November 2019 in which they have stated that they are prepared to pay a premium of £2,500.00 for the extension to the Lease
- The Council's Surveyor has valued the premium as £2,851.00 and the Council's counter notice has stipulated this amount.
- The Council and Leaseholder have now reached an agreement on a premium figure of £2,851.00
- The Leaseholder will be responsible for the Council's reasonable Legal and Surveyor's fees.

Part B - Assessment of implications and risks

LEGAL IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS

The Leaseholder has entitlement pursuant to the Leasehold Reform Housing and Urban Development Act 1993 to an extension of the lease for a period of 90 years at a peppercorn rent in addition to the unexpired term of the lease. The provisions and requirements and timetable are set out in the 1993 Act.

Failure to comply with the statutory provisions and timescales can mean the leaseholder could commence action against the Council in the First Tier Tribunal (Lands Chamber) under the 1993 Act and seek appropriate redress. The Council would in addition be liable for all associated costs in this regard as well.

FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS

The figure of £2,851.00 has been agreed with and is payable by the Leaseholder, in addition to any other associated costs in connection with extending the lease term.

HUMAN RESOURCES IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS (AND ACCOMMODATION IMPLICATIONS WHERE RELEVANT)

The recommendations made in this report do not give rise to any identifiable HR risks or implications that would affect either the Council or its workforce.

EQUALITIES AND SOCIAL INCLUSION IMPLICATIONS AND RISKS

It is not considered necessary to enter into an Equalities Impact Assessment in relation to buying this property. The purchase will be completed after the standard property purchase negotiations using standard a contract format, undertaken with the expressed consent of the owner; therefore an EIA is not considered relevant.
