On the 28th July 2013 Police were called to the premises pursuant to a large scale disturbance at which Police required urgent assistance. As a consequence the senior officer at the scene exercised Police powers under s.161 of the Licensing Act 2013 and closed the premises.

On the 30th July 2013 Police attended Redbridge Magistrates Court and the closure was heard. The court ordered that the premises was to be closed immediately to all persons and remain closed for one day from the date of the order.

S.167 Licensing Act 2003 states:

Review of premises licence following closure order

(1) This section applies where —

(a) a closure order has come into force in relation to premises in respect of which a premises licence has effect, and

(b) the relevant licensing authority has received a notice under section 165(4) (notice of magistrates' court's determination), in relation to the order and any extension of it.

(2) The relevant licensing authority must review the premises licence.

(3) The authority must reach a determination on the review no later than 28 days after the day on which it receives the notice mentioned in subsection (1)(b).

Following the court hearing extensive enquiries with the magistrates' court with regards to the duty imposed upon the court by s.165(4) were undertaken. The court is required by this section to notify the appropriate Licensing Authority of the closure order and any determination made. Initially the court was unable to confirm the 30th July 2013 appearance. Subsequently, on the 19th September 2013, notification arrived with Havering's Legal and Democratic services.
