On the 4/5 May 2013 Police were called to the premises and as a consequence the senior officer at the scene decided to utilise their powers under S 161 Licensing Act 2003 and close the premises.

On the 7 May 2013 Police attended Redbridge Magistrates Court and the closure was heard. The court decided not to extend the closure but ratified the decision of the Police in the initial instance.

S167 Licensing Act 2003 states:-

Review of premises licence following closure order

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a closure order has come into force in relation to premises in respect of which a premises licence has effect, and

(b) the relevant licensing authority has received a notice under section 165(4) (notice of magistrates' court's determination), in relation to the order and any extension of it.

(2) The relevant licensing authority must review the premises licence.

(3) The authority must reach a determination on the review no later than 28 days after the day on which it receives the notice mentioned in subsection (1)(b).

Following the hearing, there have been extensive enquiries with the court with regards to S167 (1) (b). Initially the court were unable to confirm the court appearance. Subsequently on the 19 September 2013 documentation arrived with Havering's Legal and Democratic services.
